

People and Policy Officer - POSITION DESCRIPTION

ABOUT YOUNG AUSTRALIANS IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Young Australians in International Affairs (YAIA) is a not-for-profit organisation dedicated to connecting and engaging the next generation of Australian leaders in international affairs and to building the high calibre leaders necessary to navigate Australia's future in the Indo-Pacific century. YAIA is a company limited by guarantee and a registered charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profit Commission (ACNC).

ABOUT THE ROLE

The People and Policy Officers are responsible for assisting in the management of YAIA's recruitment, internal communications, cyber-security, and governance. They will work closely with the Chief People Officer to assist in onboarding/offboarding volunteers, supporting the development of YAIA's governance structures, establishing cyber-security measures and responding to security threats, managing YAIA's email system, and other functions relating to personnel management.

This is a newly formed role under YAIA's new personnel structure, and as such, there may be opportunity for the roles and responsibilities of the position to develop, depending on internal changes as well as the interests of the successful candidates.
